Praying The Names of Jesus

Those who know your name trust in you. Psalm 9:10

Scripture gives us the gift of knowing Jesus not only through what He said and did, but also through His many names. Names identify someone, and reflect that person's character. This week as we listen and talk to God in prayer, we will be focusing on one of Jesus' names each day. The list below provides some additional names of Jesus that you can pray through during the week or in the weeks to come. Use the questions on the back to interact with these names.
